

PROTECTING YOUR JEWELRY AND OTHER VALUABLES

Your homeowner's policy may include some coverage for personal items and valuables, but they come with a limit. If the valued item exceeds the limit, there is no coverage for the difference. If you own anything of value that surpasses the designated limits on your policy, you should look into scheduling those items to make sure they are insured at the full value.

Items that should be scheduled:

Jewelry Furs Art Antiques Stamp or coin collections Silverware
Firearms Musical Instruments expensive cameras Expensive computer equipment

Call us today and we can discuss if it's beneficial to schedule any items of value.
